

Men's Luke in Scotch

$325

Arriving with the Spring/Summer 2020 collection, the P448 Luke Scotch is bound to become a coveted silhouette for the Italian footwear brand. The men's lifestyle runner features a mixture of black, white, and grey mesh across the base of the upper, and then layers on much more to create the unique look. Grey suede and metallic silver leather overlays give the shoe its stability, and the bright blue leather heel takes it up a notch with some vibrant color — as if it needed it.

Women's TheaF in White Grey

$298

The P448 TheaF White/Grey elevates the TheaF women's style with a futuristic-looking sole. Created with versatility in mind, a blend of premium leather and suede appear in neutral shades of white and grey — a pleasing palette for any outfit or occasion. White laces continue the stark white tone and P448 is perforated on the side. Last but not least, below the upper is where the action happens. The standout silver metallic sole is clearly the focal point of the chunky TheaF style.

Women's Star2.0 in Asperge

$298

The P448 Star2.0 Asperge women's high-top sneaker utilizes multiple striking patterns to achieve a refined streetwear aesthetic. Covering most of the upper is a textured coconut patent leather upper in a champagne color. Cream-colored laces and a white rubber sole keep the color scheme light and bright, as does the metallic silver inner lining. A pale orange plastic material hosts the P448-branded tongue badge, while the multi-colored iridescent tongue is flanked with a python skin pattern in pale shades of yellow, green, grey, and pink.

Men's JohnMid in Orange Suede

$298

Constructed with exceptional Italian craftsmanship, the P448 Johnmid Orange Suede provides sneaker fans with sleek new alternative to the lifestyle shoe. The simplistic yet modern style boasts a orange-ish, tan suede upper, and the iconic P448 perforated logo appears on the lateral side. Light grey on the laces and the cream-colored sole complete the color combination, while a metallic silver lining and heel logo give the shoe a subtle pop.

Men's Dean in Black/Orange Tech

$355

Ultra-modern with a retro twist, the P448 Dean in Black/Orange Tech possesses depth and texture with various materials and overlays to create the look. Shades of black and gray cover the majority of the upper, while orange neoprene trims the shoe's collar and provides a nice pop. A P448-branded heel tab adds a nice functional detail. Featuring a chunky Vibram rubber sole, the fashionable runner is finished in white and gum-color with a black contrast wave detail throughout the midsole.
